

Kamryn Marck

Ecological gardener,
Theatre artist

THEATRE EMPLOYMENT

Self-Employed, Michigan, USA

March 2021 - Present

- Develops, writes, and performs one-woman-plays about women in history.
- Books performances at libraries, museums, and public centers around the state and carries out performances and talkbacks with curious audience members.
- Wrote a commissioned play about the Van Hoosen women of Rochester Hills. Worked with producer, director, and cast to develop a heartfelt production with numerous performances.

The Rev Theatre Educational Tour, Auburn, NY

September 2019 - March 2020

- Led engaging and educational classroom workshops for students grades 3-9. Created and maintained a safe space for students to discover, play, explore ideas, collaborate.
- Performed two shows per day M-F.
- Drove company vehicle

Thunder Bay Theatre, Alpena, MI

September 2018 - May 2019

- Developed and taught a dynamic Shakespeare workshop to various high school students in northern Michigan
- Performed in Main Stage plays and musicals: The Glass Menagerie, I Love a Piano, Romeo & Juliet
- Worked as a scenic painter, assisting wherever needed

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Fine Arts - Musical Theatre

Oakland University.

Permaculture Design Certification

Earth Activist Training.

Urban Agriculture Certification

Oregon State University.

Bioremediation, led by Leila Darwish

Earth Activist Training.

PERSONAL SKILLS

Effective and clear public speaker and writer, whole-systems thinker, self-motivated, analytical and creative, ability to work individually or collaborate with a group, thorough, organized, methodical, fast-learner

INSTRUMENTS

Voice, Piano, Guitar,
Mandolin

Good Tidings Carolers, metro-Detroit, MI

September 2024 - present

- Leads and rehearses a group of 20 singers in 4-part harmony to perform in quartets and octets for the holiday season.
- Chooses repertoire
- Communicates with clients, booking gigs, negotiating contracts, schedules singers, etc
- Markets the group and runs social media account

Professional Theatre Work as an Actor:

Brown County Playhouse (Nashville, IN), Nettle Creek Players (Hagerstown, IN), Festival 56 (Princeton, IL), Three Crows Theatre (Chicago, IL), Second City (Chicago, IL), Pride Films and Plays (Chicago, IL), Quest Theatre Ensemble (Chicago, IL), Puzzle Piece Theatre Co. (Ferndale, MI), Theatre Nova (Ann Arbor, MI), Shakespeare Royal Oak (Royal Oak, MI), Untheatre Co. (Detroit, MI), Riverbank Theatre (Marine City, MI), Open Book Theatre Company (Trenton, MI), Lorenzo Cultural Center (Macomb, MI), Container Globe (Detroit, MI)

ECOLOGICAL EMPLOYMENT

Garden Juju Collective, Ann Arbor, MI

May 2021 - April 2025

- Worked with a team of skilled practitioners in installing and maintaining ambitious regenerative permaculture designs.
- Completed various gardening and landscaping tasks using an ecological lens: planting a wide variety of perennial trees, shrubs, and groundcovers, weeding invasive species, mulching, watering, etc.
- Wrote standard operating procedure for eco-gardening techniques including, but not limited to: best practices for invasive species management, mulching, tree and shrub protection, soil erosion, etc.
- Developed content for the educational branch of the company - designing and creating slides, worksheets, and teaching several gardening workshops.

LANGUAGES

English (Native),
Conversational Spanish
(Level B1),
Conversational American
Sign Language

PROJECTS / PUBLIC SERVICE

Good Tidings Carolers –
Co-founder and Lead
Facilitator, 2024-present
goodtidingscarolers.com

Cayuga Climate Action
— Co-founder and Lead
Facilitator, 2019-2021

Living Willow
Installation, Auburn
Permaculture Park —
Volunteer, July-August
2020

Fingerlakes
Permaculture Institute
— Board of Directors, 2020

PUBLICATIONS

Acknowledge Progress,
Strive for More Change
— Sustainable Tompkins,
4/14/2021

Silver Tree Forest Farm, Auburn, NY

March 2020 - October 2020

- Thoughtfully tended a wide variety of plants, animals, fungi: vegetables, herbs, medicinals, perennials, fruit and nut trees, chickens, ducks, bees, shiitake mushrooms without chemical inputs
- Eagerly built: Healthy Soil (no-till, composting, sheet mulch, moving organic matter) and Farm Infrastructure (mobile chicken tractors, greenhouse, roadside stand)

PLAYS, PRESENTATIONS + PANELS

Women of the Watch, Keepers of the Light, Lorenzo Cultural Center & Michigan Tour, 3/2022-present

One-Woman-Show featuring several stories of inspiring lighthouse keepers.

Movers, Shakers, and Music Makers, Michigan Tour, 2024-present

One-Woman-Show featuring several stories of six activists in Michigan history.

Three Needles and Suture, Lorenzo Cultural Center, 2025

True stories of Bertha Van Hoosen, Alice Van Hoosen, and Sarah Van Hoosen Jones.

There's a Place for Us, Select Performances, 2026-present

One-Woman-Show exploring learning from queer women in history about how to build safe spaces in real time

Seed Starting: Everything You Need to Grow, Four Towns United Methodist Church, 2/19/2022

2 hour seed starting workshop including hands-on practicum.

From Trash to Treasure, Home Composting, Virtual Presentation, 7/25/2021

1.5 hour virtual or in-person presentation on composting for every lifestyle.

Our Local Environment and How We Make a Difference, With Dana Balter (Candidate for NY24 Congressional District), The Phoenix Building in Auburn, NY. 3/9/2020

Fruitful Q and A about climate impact through local policy decisions.

Let's Talk: Pride, Panelist with Tom Berriman, Suzy Langeveld, Jenn Cousineau, Jen Baker, Zoey Collins. Hosted by Thunder Bay Theatre in Alpena, MI. Facilitated by Kingsli Kraft. Virtual. 6/30/2020

LGBTQ stories and experiences in a small town.

ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCIES

Lorenzo Cultural Center, Spring 2025

Mackinac State Historic Parks on Mackinac Island, Summer 2025